AUTHOR'S NOTES

There are three real historical figures in this play; Adina White, Dorothy Arzner, and Elizebeth Smith Friedman. All of their actions in this play are purely products of my imagination.

Once again, thanks to Gerald Sanders for sharing historical information that inspired the shocking family secret in this play. Thanks to Jim Spencer, one of the founders of Cambridge Black Trailblazers, and descendant of Gertrude Wright Morgan, for letting me know about Adina White and to Leslie Brunetta for creating Ms. White's biography for the Friends of Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Thanks to the women of Cambridge and beyond who have worked and continue to work for social justice every day and for and to those City agencies, organizations, and individuals who gather and share the many stories of these people, including the Cambridge Commission on the Status of Women, the Cambridge Historical Commission, the Cambridge Historical Society, and many others.
